

Prof. D.Sc. Ph.D Maria Richert is working as lecturer and scientist at AGH University of Science and Technology in Kraków, at Management Faculty.

Prof. D.Sc. Ph.D Maria Richert is author and coauthor of 188 articles, coauthor of two chapters in books in English language and author of scientific book in Polish. She presented of 60 lectures at national and international conferences, and participated in 90 conferences. Prof. D.Sc. Ph.D Maria Richert participated in 64 different scientific projects, works order by industry as manager or contractor. Her Hirsch-Index according Web of Science is 15. The scientific activities of prof. dr hab. inż. Maria Richert are generally associate with the materials engineering, surface engineering, heat treatment, nanomaterials, SPD deformation, investigations of metal, metal alloys and metallic powders. Moreover she also concentrates at aluminium alloys heat treatment and nitriding of tool materials. She ha salso achievements in managment science.

During her professional activity she was vice – dean and dean of Non Ferrous Faculty AGH University, department manager in Higher Engineering Dentistric School. She is member of scientific polish associations and prize winner of numerous academic awards and medals from societies.