

Henryk Karas; tel. +48 601 551 444, h.karas@data.pl;

Address: 59-300 Lubin; ul. Wł. Reymonta 4

1972	Wrocław Technical University; MSc diploma in mineral processing and mining of metallic ore.
1981/82	Wrocław University - Postgraduate studies for translators on technical English
1991/93	International Business School in Warsaw (now Prof. Koźminski Academy on Business Administration) ; MBA diploma
1972-2006	employed at KGHM Copper Mining Company on many positions in mining, mineral processing and research and development dep.
2006-2009	President of Research and Project Centre KGHM Cuprum in Wrocław
2009 - 2016	Adviser to KGHM Management on European Cooperation
2006 - 2012	President of the European Technology Platform on Sustainable Mineral Resources (ETP SMR); Brussels and later a member of High Level Group of ETP on SMR representing KGHM Company ( 2013-2016 )
2009 - 2016	representative of KGHM Company in the Steering Committee of Euromines and Eurometaux associations, Brussels.
2009 - 2011	KGHM representative in the Technology Committee of the International Copper Association (ICA), NY, USA
2009 - 2012	representative of KGHM Company and Chief of KGHM team in international project (Polish-Scandinavian) titled „Smart Mine of the Future”.
2012 - 2016	member of Sherpa Group representing KGHM in UE programme titled “European Innovation Partnership on Raw Materials” (2012 - 2016), Brussels

2013—2016 member of Board of Directors in the European Copper Institute (ECI);
Brussels

2006 – 2019 member of the Canadian Institute of Mining and Metallurgy (CIMM)

Since 2016 pensioner and expert on RM for Polish Ministry of Environment and Ministry of Development; Warsaw, in Polish Geological Survey in Warsaw

Member of the Cracow Association on Technology

---

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read 'J. Kowalski'.